NATIONAL ACADEMY OF HUMAN RESOURCES ANNOUNCES WINNERS OF THE NAHR RAM CHARAN HR ESSAY CONTEST

NEW YORK, November 7, 2013 – The National Academy of Human Resources (NAHR) today announced the winners of the 2013 NAHR Ram Charan HR Essay Contest:

First Place: Tiffany Scheff and Josie Trine, ILR School, Cornell University
Second Place: Joseph Redlitz, Rutgers University
Third Place: Indranil Dey, Asian Institute of Management, Philippines

The contest is designed to stimulate interest in the HR profession as a career for the best talent in the global education system and to further advance the NAHR Fellows' knowledge and understanding in particular areas of interest.

This year's topic, "How are electronic technology and social media affecting:

- The employment relationship (from hiring to engagement to retention) between employers and employees?
- The roles, responsibilities and contributions of human resources organizations?"

generated essays from undergraduate and graduate students from many countries. Prizes of $20,000 for first place, $10,000 for second place, and $5,000 for third place were awarded. The NAHR Ram Charan HR Essay Contest has been made possible by a generous donation to the NAHR Foundation from NAHR Distinguished Fellow Ram Charan, a world-renowned author, speaker, and business advisor. The next essay contest topic will be announced in March 2014.

The NAHR Foundation and the Fellows of the Academy announced the twelfth Chief Human Resource Officer (CHRO) Academy, to be held June 11 and 12, 2014. This by-invitation-only program is designed to offer new HR executives holding the top HR positions in their organizations an opportunity to meet with Academy Fellows and other experts and develop a personal plan to enhance their contributions to the overall performance of their enterprises.
